

Join the “I’m Counting on You” Virtual Rally

Washington State has a massive budget deficit. Proposed cuts slash entire programs that kids’ need to be safe, healthy and succeed. The budget should never be balanced on the back of a child. Kids can’t wait until after the recession to grow up.

Add your photo and your story to the Children’s Alliance virtual rally now – and tell lawmakers that we are counting on them to pass a budget that protects children.

How to join the rally:

1. Take a photo of a child holding a sign that says “I’m Counting on You!”
2. Send your photo to Siobhan@childrensalliance.org. Include the child’s name, and the program he or she is counting on.
3. Visit www.childrensalliance.org on or after January 12th to see the rally in action.
