Speaking Out for Washington's Children Since 1983

When we act together, we have a bigger impact than when we act alone.

1. Why do you speak up for kids? What, or who, motivates you?
2. Write it (in 1-3 words) below after “I stand for:”
3. Turn to someone next to you. Introduce yourself. Then, ask that person to take a photo of you sitting in your seat, and holding your sign. (Portrait orientation works best.) If you don't have a picture-taking phone, or you want help, just ask a someone at your table, or raise your hand and one of the photographers will find you.
4. Share your photo with Children's Alliance:
 - Text it to 202-730-9772 OR
 - Email it to action@childrensalliance.org
5. Share your photo on social media:
 - Post to Facebook and tag @childrensalliance
 - Tweet it with the hashtags #waleg and #30strong

A collage combining the photos submitted today will be sent to all state legislators and Governor Inslee later this week with a request that they stand strong for kids.
